GREYSTEEL ARRANGES THE SALE OF A 17-UNIT MULTIFAMILY COMMUNITY IN HIGHLAND PARK, TX

January 29, 2018, Dallas, TX – Greysteel, a national commercial real estate investment services firm, has arranged the sale of Normandy Apartments, a 17-unit multifamily property located in Highland Park, TX.

Greysteel Managing Directors, Doug Banerjee and Boyan Radic; Senior Investment Associate, Andrew Mueller; and Investment Associate, Andrew Hanson who are all based in the company's Dallas and Fort Worth offices, negotiated the transaction.

The 17-unit property built in 1960, consists of nine one-bedroom units and eight two-bedroom units averaging 759 SF. Normandy Apartments is located in the highly desirable town of Highland Park. The Property is located directly across the street from Highland Park Middle School, a few blocks from Southern Methodist University and is in close proximity to Highland Park Village which includes some of the best restaurants and shopping in the Dallas area.

“We were honored to arrange this sale for the Seller and Buyer” Mueller commented. “Opportunities to purchase multifamily zoned property in Highland Park do not surface often. We wish both the Seller and Buyer continued success.”
